

ROOSEVELT GLORIOUSLY GREETED BY 17,000 LOYAL PROGRESSIVES

OVATION LASTED FOR FORTY MINUTES

Thousands Congregated Outside to Shout Welcome to Restored Leader

THRILLING ADDRESS BY NATION'S GREATEST MAN

Lofty and Moving Words Came From Heart of Man Who Lately Faced Grim Death

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Bearing no outward sign of the bullet in his breast, Theodore Roosevelt last night re-entered the campaign at Madison Square Garden. He spoke for 40 minutes to the biggest meeting he has ever witnessed in New York and to one of the greatest gatherings that has ever been seen in the historic auditorium. He delivered one of the most notable political addresses ever recorded in the history of political utterances.

More than 17,000 men and women, overwhelmingly Progressive, welcomed him. Another vast crowd of many thousands waited all evening outside in the hope that they might catch a word or two from the Colonel as he departed. They were disappointed, for his physicians, fearing too great a tax on his strength, refused to permit him to make more than one address.

The crowd inside cheered for 40 minutes when Roosevelt, at twenty minutes past 9 o'clock, led his guards into the garden, climbed the steps to the speaker's gallery, and stood before them. Bandanas and American flags waved like a moving forest. The shouts of the crowd and the drumming of thousands of heels on the floors drowned the band and every air that has been sung in the campaign from "Everybody's Doin' It" to "Onward Christian Soldiers," boomed forth when the enthusiasts wearied of plain cheering, or mooring like a moose, or of yelling "We want Teddy; we want Teddy."

The great hall whose galleries and arched ceiling were completely hidden with bunting and huge flags, made a marvelous picture as the Colonel, leaning over the speaker's rail, raised his left hand in his first greeting.

For three-quarters of an hour he stood there. Now and then, recognizing a friend, he would make a little dash to the other end of the stand, a distance of twenty feet, and wave his hand—always his left—in greeting, awakening successive outbursts of cheers, and bandanas and flags were set in motion by sections, till red flashes ran over the crowd like waves.

The Colonel's speech was pitched in a solemn and impressive key. He made no direct allusion to the attack upon him. He made no attack upon any individual among his political foes. He named no names save those of Washington, Lincoln, Jefferson and Jackson.

With cheeks thinner than before the attack upon him, but with abundant color, with figure sturdy and erect, and with a voice that reached to every part of the hall, the Colonel seemed the picture of health. All his gestures, save one or two, were made with his left hand which, being farthest from his bullet wound, could be moved with impunity.

The flashlights were set off at intervals during the address he faced without wincing, though the flare of flame and detonations must have reminded him of the night in Milwaukee two weeks ago Monday, when he had a narrower escape from death than any man cares to go through.

Col. Roosevelt was preceded by Senator Dixon, who presided; by Oscar Straus, the candidate for Governor, who has carried his fight on in New York, and by Governor Johnson of California, who has been carrying it through other states since the head of the ticket has been confined to his bed.

For all these there were great receptions, particularly for Straus.

In his speech ex-President Roosevelt said in part:

Friends, perhaps once in a generation; perhaps not so often, there comes a chance for the people of a country to play their part wisely and fearlessly in some great battles of the age—long warfare for human rights. To our fathers the chance came in the mighty days of Abraham Lincoln, of the man who thought and toiled and suffered for the people with sad patience and kindly endeavor. To our forefathers the chance came in the troubled years that stretched from the time when the first Continental Congress gathered to the time when Washington was inaugurated.

BAPTISM OF BLOOD MAKES ROOSEVELT CONFESSOR OF HIS OWN GREAT GOSPEL

Most timely with the return of Theodore Roosevelt into the presidential campaign, still carrying a bullet in his breast, is the splendid tribute to him from the New York Independent, a supporter politically of Taft, but alive to the marvelous qualities of the man, Roosevelt, who more than any other in public life, has shown himself absolutely fearless along every line. The Independent says:

"What the battle of San Juan Hill could not do for Theodore Roosevelt the surer bullet of a brooding wealing has done—it baptized him with blood; it has made him the Confessor—we trust not the Martyr—of his gospel. It has bracketed him with our martyr presidents, scarce missing their full canonization. We rejoice that the assassin's pistol failed of its murderous purpose. Roosevelt has done great service to his country in the years of his administration; may he live to do more.

"The exhibition he made of physical and spiritual self-control on the occasion was most masterly. There is not one man in ten thousand who could have done what he did. He would not hasten to a hospital; he would not consider his own life; he would speak, and he did speak. He stood before the vast audience, told them very seriously that he had been shot but five minutes before, that the bullet was in his body. He held up the pierced manuscript that had saved his life, and pointed out the spot where the ball had entered his breast. Then he told them that he cared not for himself; that he might die—that was of no importance; that all he cared for, that all any man fit to lead should care for, was the cause for which he fought. And then he continued for fifty minutes, reading from his mangled notes until his weakening voice and the loss of blood compelled him to stop; but not until he had exhibited such force of will, such superb nerve, as will be a pattern and inspiration for thousands who in the generations to come will hear and tell the tale. That was a man who was man all through; and more persuasive than any vote-getting speech will be this sanguinary incident in the long life, we trust, of Theodore Roosevelt.

MRS. M'COMAS DEAD M'COMAS IS FREE

Doctors Declare Case is One of Plain Suicide; Inquiry is Ordered by Coroner

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—Mrs. Jean Wismell McComas, wife of W. P. McComas, a wealthy mining operator, who shot herself died today at the Adler Sanitarium without regaining consciousness. The police released McComas, who was once tried for the murder of Mrs. Charlotte Noyes, in Los Angeles four years ago. He declared that his wife suicided.

Following the operation on the brain the physicians stated that Mrs. McComas had an even chance for recovery but she was unable to survive the crisis. Coroner Leeland has ordered an exhaustive inquiry into the circumstances of the shooting. Chief of Detectives Wall stated that he would re-arrest McComas, as the doctors declared it was a plain case of suicide.

CHAS. CONWAY AND WIFE ARE ARRESTED

Suspected of Murdering Miss Sophia Singer, an Heiress of Baltimore

LIMA, Ohio, Oct. 31.—Suspected of implication in the murder of Miss Sophie Singer, a Baltimore heiress, in a Chicago rooming house, Chas. Conway, a professional diver, and his wife were taken into custody today. Chas. Warthen, a Baltimore car conductor, on the day following the murder told the police that robbery was the motive, as a thousand dollars worth of jewelry was missing from the woman's room.

Mrs. Conway, who was an actress, became hysterical when told that she and her husband were suspected of the crime.

Conway admitted knowing before leaving Chicago that Miss Singer had been slain. He stoutly protested his innocence. Two suits of clothes belonging to Warthen, the fiancé of Miss Singer, was found in Conway's trunk. A telephone conversation overheard by a cabman led to Conway's arrest.

Another meeting is to be held tomorrow night at the same place. Adherents who did not attend last night are urged to be present.

HATPIN WAR IN SYDNEY

Sixty Society Women Go to Jail Rather Than Pay Fines for Wearing Protruding Hatpins

SYDNEY, N. S. W., Oct. 31.—For going about the city with their hatpins protruding, sixty women, most of them prominent in society, were tried, convicted and fined yesterday in one Sydney court. The women went to jail rather than pay their fines, declaring they would not submit to "iniquities and unnecessary legislation."

The city authorities face a situation similar to that growing out of the suffragette demonstrations in England, as the women assert that if further arrests and imprisonments are ordered because of the hatpin ordinance, they will declare a "hunger strike" in jail.

OTTOMAN RULE IS NEARING AN END

Bulgarians Rout Turks at Lule Burges—200,000 Turks are in Full Retreat

ADRIANOPLE REPORTED AS FALLEN; LOSSES GREAT

Constantinople Denies Report; Massacre of Foreigners in Turkey Imminent

PARIS, Oct. 31.—That under no circumstances will the powers permit the Bulgarian troops to enter Constantinople, was an authoritative announcement today. Diplomats agree that this may hold the kernel of grave trouble, as it is believed the Bulgarians will disregard the powers and enter Constantinople anyway.

VIENNA, Oct. 31.—That the end of Ottoman rule in Europe is near is the unanimous verdict of diplomats today, following the reports of the Lule Burges disaster. The friends of the Sultan have abandoned all hope of Turkish victory, and express the belief that the Bulgarian troops will control Constantinople within a week. Reports from Sofia and other Balkan cities say that the Turkish defeat at Lule Burges is the most complete of the war, and although no official confirmation has been received, the Bulgarian accounts of the clash are credited on all sides.

Military experts expect General Nazim Pasha to rally his troops for another clash at a point forty miles west of Constantinople, and make a last stand in the narrow peninsula where the city is located. Although the rumors of the fall of Adrianople have not been officially confirmed, military experts generally credit the report, and believe the end of the Sultan's dominion in Europe is near at hand. Another unverified report is that Rodosto, a Turkish city on the Sea of Marmora, has also been captured.

No details of the fighting at Lule Burges have been received except that 200,000 Turks were soundly whipped, and are in full retreat on Constantinople. Athens and Belgrade dispatches indicate uninterrupted Greek and Serbian advances.

Turks Beaten at Lule Burges
SOFIA, Oct. 31.—An official announcement that the Turks have been completely routed at Lule Burges and are fleeing, with the Bulgarians in hot pursuit, has been partially confirmed from outside sources. The war office estimates that the fleeing Turk numbers 200,000.

Adrianople Reported as Taken
VRANJE, Serbia, Oct. 31.—The massacre of foreigners in Turkey is imminent, according to reports today. Captive Turks declare that if reverses continue, the massacre of Christians in the Musselman empire is certain.

Austria Busy for Territory
VIENNA, Oct. 31.—Diplomatic negotiations with Serbia are reported to have been started today concerning the division of Turkish territory should the Balkan allies triumph. Austrian diplomats declare they are not so jealous as the other allies because they do not desire the territory that Austria wants.

Montenegrins Suffer Loss
CETTINJE, Oct. 31.—The Montenegrins last night unsuccessfully attempted to rush the Tarabosh fortifications, according to today's dispatches. They retired with a loss of three hundred.

Aviator Killed By Turks
PARIS, Oct. 31.—The Russian aviator, Popoff, was killed by Turks while he was flying over Adrianople. He was the first aviator to die in actual warfare. The Turks fired shrapnel, killing the aviator. This death explodes the theory that an aviator can fly swiftly over forts without being killed.

Says Every Party Will in Two Years Take up Principles Stated Last Night

BURNS AND JEROME WILL INSURE SQUARE ELECTION

Burns is Progressive and Jerome is Not, But Both Will Work Together

OYSTER BAY, Oct. 31.—Colonel Roosevelt was up early today and showed no signs of fatigue from last night's speech at Madison Square Garden. He said:

"By George, I feel fine. The crowd was most attentive and seemed to appreciate every point made, and responded immediately. It was the best meeting by far of the campaign. The principles I announced last night will be taken up by every party within two years."

The Colonel expressed satisfaction at securing the services of Burns and Jerome to prevent election frauds. He said:

"Burns supports me and Jerome does not, and for that reason I am glad to have them join in a guarantee of an honest election. I don't want a single vote that I am not entitled to, but on the other hand, I don't intend that my opponents shall receive a vote that they are not entitled to."

PRINCETON, Oct. 31.—Governor Wilson is preparing today for his speech at Madison Square tonight. The Governor is highly pleased with his New Jersey campaign and predicts that the Democrats will sweep the state.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Charles Becker, convicted in the first degree of the slaying of Herman Rosenthal, and sentenced to the electric chair in December, is today lodged in the death house at Sing Sing prison, awaiting the outcome of his appeal for a retrial of his case or for the execution of the penalty upon his body.

When he passed into his cell at 2 o'clock this afternoon after a nerve shattering journey from the court-room where his doom was pronounced, his identity as Charles Becker was lost. Henceforth he is No. 62,499.

EVANS CAMPAIGNING IN SAN DIEGO COUNTY

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 31.—S. C. Evans, the Progressive Republican nominee for Congress from this district, arrived here yesterday to put in the rest of the week finishing up his campaign in this city and county. Monday and Tuesday he worked in Elsinore, Hemet, San Jacinto, Beaumont and Banning.

"It was the first time I had been in that part of the district since the primary," said Evans today. "I did not find that things had changed materially since the primary, except where some of the old line Republicans had come over to our side. They say that they would rather support a Republican who believes a little differently from what they do than to turn to a Democrat."

His injuries are not regarded as serious.

VICE PRESIDENT JAMES S. SHERMAN.

Election Not Affected; Committee Must Choose

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—The death of Vice President Sherman will have no effect upon the election. The Taft electors, in case of a Taft victory at the polls next Tuesday, will choose a Vice President. The selection will probably be made by the Republican National Committee, in case the Republican ticket wins.

Disregarding the outcome of the election, the country will have no Vice President up to March 4, 1913, owing to the death of Mr. Sherman, as the constitution makes no provision for a successor to the Vice President.

The President pro tempore of the Senate assumes the Vice President's duties as president of the Senate, in the event of the death of the Vice President.

At present there is no president pro tempore of the Senate, the position formerly held by Senator William P. Frye of Maine. The Republicans in the Senate having failed to agree upon a successor.

SHERMAN OUT OF GREAT RACE

Death Snatches Vice President From Earthly Activities—End Came Last Night

ILLNESS OF YEAR SAPPED STRENGTH OF STATESMAN

Distinguished Career Cut Short by Devotion to Cause of Republican Party

UTICA, N. Y., Oct. 31.—The funeral of James Schoolcraft Sherman, late Vice President, will be held at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon. All arrangements were completed this afternoon. The services will be conducted by Rev. M. W. Stryker, president of Hamilton College, assisted by Rev. Louis Holden. The body will lie in state at the Oneida court-house on Friday afternoon from 3 to 9 o'clock.

Gave Life for Party

UTICA, N. Y., Oct. 31.—The physicians attending Vice President Sherman, who died last night at 9:42 o'clock, say he sacrificed his life for the Republican party. He completely disregarded their warnings and made speeches at times when he was told it was suicidal to do so. Later, he insisted on going to the polls and registering, doing this against orders, which was immediately followed by the relapse which resulted in his death.

Flags of all public buildings are at half-mast in Utica which is mourning the loss of her most popular citizen. Harry Devendorf, Vice President Sherman's secretary, said today the funeral would probably be held Saturday. The interment will be in the Sherman mausoleum in Forest Hill Cemetery here. Mrs. Sherman is in poor health and it is feared the shock will aggravate her condition.

Capital Mourns "Sunny Jim"

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—The nation's capital is in deep mourning today over the death of Vice President Sherman. Flags on Government buildings are at half-mast, while genuine sorrow is expressed on all sides over the death of "Sunny Jim."

President Taft and Postmaster General Hitchcock, the only Cabinet minister in Washington, will attend the funeral. Both the Senate and House will be represented.

An official announcement of Sherman's death was issued by President Taft this afternoon with a request that all public officials pay tribute. All government business will be suspended on the day of the funeral. All army posts and naval vessels were ordered to lower their flags to half-mast, and the United States Supreme Court this afternoon will adjourn for several days out of respect to Sherman's memory.

VICE PRESIDENT WAS ILL PRACTICALLY ALL YEAR

UTICA, N. Y., Oct. 31.—James Schoolcraft Sherman, Vice President of the United States, died at his home here last night at 9:42 o'clock, with Mrs. Sherman and the other members of the family at his bedside. The immediate cause of death was uraemic poisoning.

Mr. Sherman was unconscious most of the day yesterday. Only twice did he awaken from the state of coma into which he sank early in the morning. Once he was delirious and the other time he was roused sufficiently to recognize Mrs. Sherman and Dr. Fayette H. Peck, the family physician.

Although Mr. Sherman had been sick practically all this year, he did not take to his bed until a few weeks ago. His death was due to a diseased condition of the kidneys, hardening of the arteries and softening of the muscles of the heart. He suffered an attack at the big moose camp in the Adirondacks, but he improved some and was soon out of danger. In the latter part of August he had another serious recurrence of his ailments and since that time his course has been steadily downward.

For the past three weeks he had remained in bed most of the time. His condition grew alarming last Monday morning when his physicians realized that the end was near. Oxygen and every recourse known to medicine were used, but the patient sank steadily.

The announcement of the Vice President's death spread quickly through the city. Universal sorrow was expressed and immediate steps were taken for the proper recognition of the sorrowful event. Mr. Sherman was regarded as the first citizen of Utica and all differences growing out of politics dies with him.

The mayor gave out a statement voicing the general grief and the big bell at the city hall as well as many church bells tolled out the news.

Not only did the Republican or-

LONG BEACH DOWNS LIQUOR MEASURE

Women of City Rallied to Polls for Its Defeat—Drastic is New Liquor Law

LONG BEACH, Oct. 31.—With a poll of about half of the registered vote of the city, the anti-liquor ordinance was carried by 2000 majority Tuesday. The total number of votes cast was 5082, 3552 for and 1533 against. The majority was 2039; rejected 17. The total Long Beach registration is 10,037.

Women voters of the city turned out in large numbers and it is believed their interest in the measure defeated the existing ordinance. The proponents of the proposed ordinance organized the Anti-Liquor Ordinance league and instigated a campaign in favor of the new measure. The opposition made no organized fight.

The long delayed corrugated galvanized iron has come in and we now have nearly sixty thousand (60,000) feet in stock, comprising all lengths (6, 7, 8, 9 and 10 feet) and we propose to sell it at four and three-fourths (4¾) cents per square foot.

This is below the present wholesale market price, but we placed our orders a long time ago and the goods have advanced considerably during the delays of shipment.

This is the price delivered at our wareroom and this price will hold until we have to buy again.

We handle only the standard weight corrugated iron. There is a lighter article on the market, but we don't handle it.

The new ordinance is more drastic than the one now in force. It prevents common carrying or delivering of liquor in the city; allows the use of liquor for medicinal purposes, but prevents a refilling of prescriptions, and the giving away of liquor in clubs, although it does not interfere with its use in any form in private families.

The measure prohibits the keeping, opening, maintaining or carrying on a place where spirits, vinous, malt or mixed, or any alcoholic or intoxicating drinks are sold or kept for sale, furnished, distributed, delivered or given away.

By its enforcement it will be against the law to sell intoxicating liquors to a man or woman whose relatives object to the use of such drink by that person. The police will have authority to enter suspicious places, to search, seize and destroy liquor and make arrests.

William Thursby, 417 E. Walnut St., Santa Ana, Cal., says: "Off and on for years I was bothered by my back and kidneys. To stoop or walk a little distance made the dull, heavy ache in my back more severe and my rest was badly broken. Further evidence of fault with my kidneys was shown by heavy sediment in the kidney secretions. Reading about Doan's Kidney Pills, I got a box at Dean's Drug Store (now Wheeler & Mateer's Drug Store) and soon after I commenced using them, I noticed improvement. My back became strong and free from pain and the difficulty with the kidney secretions was corrected. I have not changed my opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills since I recommended them some years ago. The cure they effected has been permanent."

ROOSEVELT GREETED BY LOYAL PROGRESSIVES

gured as first President of the republic.

To us, in our turn, the chance has now come to stand for liberty and righteousness as in their day these dead men stood for liberty and righteousness. Our task is not so great as theirs. Yet it is well nigh as important. Our task is to profit by the lessons of the past and to check in time the evils that grow around us, lest our failure to do so may cause dreadful disaster to the people. We must not sit supine and helpless.

We must not permit the brutal selfishness of arrogance and the brutal selfishness of envy each to run unchecked in its evil course. If we do so then some day smoldering hatred will suddenly kindle into a consuming flame, and either we or our children will be called on to face a crisis as grim as any which this republic has ever seen.

It is our business to show that nineteenth of wisdom consists in being wise in time. We owe to our nation if we let matters drift; if in our industrial and political life we let an unchecked and utterly selfish individualistic materialism riot to its appointed end. That end would be widespread disaster, for it would mean that our people would be sundered by those dreadful lines of division which are drawn when the selfish greed of the "haves" is set over against the selfish greed of the "have-nots." There is but one way to prevent such a division, and that is to forestall it by the kind of a movement in which we are now engaged.

Party's Position Decided

In the platform formulated by the Progressive party we have set forth clearly and specifically our faith in every vital point at issue before this people. We have declared our position on the trusts and on the tariff; on the machinery for securing genuine popular government; on the method of meeting the needs of the farmer; of the business man, and of the man who toils with his hands, in the mine or on the railroad, in the factory or the shops. There is not a promise we have made which cannot be kept. There is not a promise we have made that will not be kept. Our platform is a covenant with the people of the United States, and if we are given the power we will live up to that covenant in letter and spirit.

We know that there are in life injustices which we are powerless to remedy, but we know also that there is much injustice which can be remedied, and this injustice we intend to remedy.

We do not intend to attempt the impossible. But there is much, very much, that is possible in the way of righting wrong and remedying injustice; and all that is possible we intend to do. We intend to strike down privilege; to equalize opportunity; to wrest justice from the hands that do injustice; to hearten and strengthen men and women for the hard battle of life.

We stand shoulder to shoulder in a spirit of real brotherhood, we recognize no difference of class, creed or birthplace. We recognize no sectionalism.

Our appeal is made to the easterner no less than to the westerner. Our appeal is made to the southerner no less than to the northerner.

We appeal to the men who wore the gray just as we appeal to the men who wore the blue. We appeal to the sons of the men who followed Lee, no less than to the sons of the men who followed Grant; for the memory of the great deeds of both is now part of the common heritage of honor which belongs to all our people, where they dwell.

We firmly believe that the American people feel hostility to no man who has honestly won success. We firmly believe that the American people ask only justice; justice each for himself and justice each for all others. They are against wickedness in rich men and poor men alike. They are against lawless and murderous violence, exactly as they are against the sordid materialism which seeks wealth by trickery and cheating, whether on a large or a small scale.

PADDUCK SCENE IN "OLD KENTUCKY"

AMUSEMENTS

Not many plays nowadays can show a record equal to that of "In Old Kentucky," again making a Pacific coast trip, and scheduled for appearance at the Grand Opera House Friday, Nov. 1. It is now in the twentieth year of its unparalleled success and its hold on the public continues unabated. Without question, it is one of the most successful plays ever produced in America. Its popularity is widespread and its fame unending. It has visited the Pacific coast ten or eleven times and its vogue today is as great as ever. It possesses the magnetic secret of unending popularity with the masses of theater-goers. Perhaps the reason is this: "The tendency of latter-day dramatists to write upon themes of immediate current import does not always result in plays that appeal a few years later—to say nothing of holding its grasp upon the affection of play-goers for twenty years, as has "In Old Kentucky." The latter seemingly was written for all time and to fit all changes in the public taste. It is not difficult to account for the continued prosperity of the piece, when its dramatic merit and generous supply of excellent features are considered. It tells a delightful story, it depicts stirring incidents and it abounds in a simple, wholesome philosophy of true living that make a universal, direct appeal. The picturesque feature (a score of little colored lads in songs, dances and band music) always pleases immensely, the horse race is always exciting and the comedy scenes unusually breezy and spirited. An excellent company is again promised. Miss Olive Skinner will play "Madge Briery," the leading role. This is Miss Skinner's first visit to the Pacific coast in this role. She has appeared in it with success in the East.

Fred D. Warren in Spurgeon's Hall —Fred D. Warren, the well known editor of the Appeal to Reason, will speak in Santa Ana Friday, Nov. 1, at 7:30 p.m., in Spurgeon's Hall. As this will be the only opportunity of the citizens of Orange county hearing this celebrated orator no one should miss this opportunity.

Strength

The strength of a banking institution consists not alone in its financial resources but also in the character and ability of its officers and directors and in the confidence and loyalty given it by the community of which it is a part. These banks are pre-eminently strong in ALL respects.

Service

The proper conception of a banking institution's duties and privileges includes service to its community. A bank must pay its stockholders a fair rate of interest in order to secure and hold investments in its stock; but its duty does not end here; it must also render REAL SERVICE to its community in the way of public enterprises and private support. These banks point with pride to their records in these respects.

Solvency

A banking institution to be really and truly solvent must have more and other assets than merely money and credits in excess of its money liabilities. It must have a surplus of character, a reserve fund of reputation, a credit balance of experience, large and moral resources. These banks invite examination as to their moral solvency.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

Local ranch eggs advanced 2 cents again yesterday. Case-counts were quoted at 46 cents and candled at 50 cents. Receipts were slightly heavier than the average, 75 cases. Case-count eggs sold as high as 48 cents, 2 cents above the present market quotation, and there was a scarcity of the product. Some dealers predict that the high rate now prevailing will have a tendency to check the demand for the fresh local product, and increase that for the fresh eastern and storage eggs. Some of the eastern stock is quite excellent, but a considerable portion of it is reputed below the average. The receipts of eastern eggs are fairly good.

Fresh butter and cheese were firm, and the demand not very heavy. Receipts of butter were below the average, 21,450 pounds, and 1870 pounds of cheese came in. Some cream brick changed hands at 19 cents, a figure considerably below the market quotation.

Receipts of apples yesterday were somewhat lighter than the day before, 5161 boxes. Most varieties were quite plentiful. Jonathans in particular. Persimmons are coming in pretty freely and are bringing 7 to 8 cents a pound. Cranberries packed in cartons are on the market for the first time, and are quoted at $5.25 a case. Two cars of bananas came in yesterday and two are on the way. Receipts of bananas are pretty heavy this week. Blackberries are very scarce and what few are on the market bring about 9 cents a box. Good pomegranates can be bought for $1.25 to $1.50 a box, or about 4 cents a pound. Fifty crates of fine pineapples came in. Grapes are firmer. Sweet potatoes were a little weaker and were quoted down to $1.25 a sack in some instances. The price, however, averaged between $1.35 and $1.50. Tomatoes were about firm. Beans and peas were a little more in evidence, and good stock was selling around 4 cents a pound. Lettuce was weaker and was selling as low as 65 cents, but the average price was somewhat higher.

AT THE COURTHOUSE

TWO YEARS IN STATE PRISON

Reform School Graduate is Sent to Folsom for Passing
Worthless Check

Frank Wallace, aged 22, was sentenced to two years in Folsom for passing a worthless $35 check at the Wardrobe. Wallace was sent to the state school at Whittier from San Diego county, and had finished his stay there when he came to Santa Ana a few weeks ago to work for R. J. Wooley.

He was accused of two shady transactions here. He raised a $6 check given him by Wooley to $60, and gave a $35 check to the Wardrobe to which he signed the name of W. J. Wooley. He was arrested at Whittier and held for Constable Jackson. Wallace admitted his guilt, and Judge West sentenced him.

JOSEPH DIERKSEN

IS HELD TO ANSWER

Los Angeles Times: Joseph Dierksen was held to answer in the Superior Court yesterday after a hearing before Justice Forbes on a charge of passing worthless checks. In default of $1000 bond he was taken to the county jail. Dierksen was arrested in June on the same charge by Detectives Yarnell and Albert of the Nick Harris agency, but was released in this county, although held in Orange county under seven years' probation. Yarnell stated that when arrested a dozen bad checks were found upon Dierksen's person.

DAMAGES DECISION REVERSED

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 31.—Reversing the decision of the San Francisco superior court, which awarded $6000 damages to the widow and children of John Duffy, the foreman who was killed in the Hobbs Wall Company mill, after thirty years' service, the Appellate Court today declared that "when a servant works with, or in the vicinity of machinery insufficient for the purposes for which it is employed, or unsafe, with knowledge, means of knowledge of its condition, he takes his own risk."

If it were not that R. L. Whitson has an accurate memory for faces, the story put up in justice's court today by Jesus Grojeda might have held water, and Grojeda might now be free. As it is Justice Cox found Grojeda guilty of stealing Whitson's bicycle from in front of the Bell theater on the night of Sept. 25.

When Grojeda was arrested by City Marshal Jernigan, Grojeda had Whitson's bicycle. The bicycle was fully identified at the trial today by Whitson and James Livesey, who sold it to Whitson. Grojeda testified that he was not in Santa Ana on Sept. 25. He and Antonio Soto testified that the bicycle was left near a Garden Grove camp by an unknown Mexican, and Grojeda picked it up and began using it.

But Whitson punctured the story. He remembered seeing two Mexicans standing near the theater door when he went inside. After missing his bicycle he described the two men to the officers, and the description of one fitted Grojeda exactly. Moreover, Whitson remembered the man's face, and today identified Grojeda as one of them. Grojeda will be sentenced tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock.

Case Dismissed
Yesterday Justice Cox dismissed the charge of peace disturbance brought against Mrs. Maggie Hoffman, keeper of a restaurant at Brea.

The charge was brought by Agnes Penley. Mrs. Hoffman and other witnesses testified that Miss Penley was intoxicated, and that the alleged disturbance was an ejection from Mrs. Hoffman's place.

CONTRACTOR'S BONDSMAN
FINISHED UP THE JOB

Expensive Piece of Work for Man Who Went on Hogue's Bond

Orange News: The city trustees this afternoon accepted the new engine house at the city water works with one condition attached. That was that the top and inside of the east fire wall must be plastered. The architect firm of Parker & Maybury, having accepted the building from the contractor, are held liable for the completion of this piece of work.

The city will pay the $1791 still due on the contract of $4385 to the National Bank of Orange, to cover claims against the R. L. Hogue Company.

J. A. Pirtle, Hogue's surety to the amount of $2500, attended the trustee meeting this afternoon. He told the trustees that his support of Hogue in the water works contract had already cost him $3900 and might cost him $600 more.

Pirtle went on Hogue's bond for $2500 and his note for $1400. Hogue drew from the city to the amount of about $2600 on the contract. Pirtle declared that he did not know what became of the money, but that he knew enough to put Hogue across if he desired to do so.

Hogue also took a bridge contract from the county which he was forced to abandon.

HERE IS ARGUMENT IN FAVOR OF CARRYING
GOOD ROADS BONDS

Touring Topics of Los Angeles says: "Here is advice for the motorist who contemplates an automobile tour over the roads of Orange county. Have the machine put in the best possible condition, look to all its parts and let it be washed and polished to the limit, then place it in a garage and use the steam train or trolley for your journey. For the highways of Orange county, in general, are unimproved and lily maintained dirt roads, the deep dust of which covers a multitude of ruts and chuckholes during the summer months while the rains of the winter make them veritable quagmires. In all other things Orange county is progressive and abreast of the times and is the 'Miltum in parvo' among the counties of California. It is the smallest and the richest in the value of its products of all the political units that make up Southern California."

HUNTERS ARE BACK
FROM CHASING FOXES

J. A. Turner, Gus Ward and James Conley returned yesterday from a trip of several weeks in the East, where they did considerable fox hunting with a pack of hounds taken from here. They returned directly from Fort Sill, Okla., where the fox hunters from far and near were the guests of the army officers.

The California dogs made an excellent showing. Turner was unfortunate in that he lost two of his fine pack. One dog followed off a deer near Fort Sill and he never came back. Search for him was of no avail. Turner had an offer of $100 for the hound.

Turner shipped home a fine red fox, taken alive in one of the hunts.

"CASCARETS" FOR A
SICK, SOUR STOMACH

Sluggish Bowels Cause Gases,
Sourness and Food
Fermentation

That awful sourness, belching of acid and foul gases; that pain in the pit of the stomach, the heartburn, nervousness, nausea, bloating after eating, feeling of fullness, dizziness and sick headache, means a disordered stomach, which cannot be regulated until you remove the cause. It isn't your stomach's fault. Your stomach is as good as any.

Try Cascarets; they immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off constipated waste matter and poison from the intestines and bowels. Then your stomach trouble is ended. A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from any drug store will keep your stomach sweet; liver and bowels regular for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.—Advertisement.

BUSINESS MEN ARE BOOSTERS FOR TEAM

(By VERN SMITH)
Not only is the student body of the Santa Ana High School boosting their mighty football team, but also the business men of Santa Ana are giving their help. By boosting a championship team they also boost Santa Ana.

The team is practically sure of winning the title this year and by giving it your support you will help it along. Mr. Fuller, of the Dragon Confectionery Company says: "The team is good, and it is worthy of the business men's help and by boosting the team you are also boosting Santa Ana. I am in favor of doing everything in my power to boost Santa Ana's football team and help it along, because it is worthy of our help."

A parade of the Santa Ana football squad will be held Saturday afternoon to show the public what the team is.

Fortunes in Faces

NOISELESS MOTOR

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—The perfection of a noiseless motor for aeroplanes is announced from the army aviation school at College Park, Maryland. This invention, in connection with the newly compounded paint, which renders aeroplanes invisible when several hundred feet in the air, will bring new dread upon great nations engaged in war. Operated with noiseless motor, aeroplanes can be maintained with only the hum of the propeller to give notice of their approach.
